

Functional Analysis and Partial Differential Equations

Information regarding the exam

General

- You are allowed to bring one A4-sheet (two sided) of handwritten notes to the exam.
- All other auxiliary means are not allowed. This includes, among others, scripts, books, calculators, phones and so on.
- Please do not bring any other paper, you will be given a form to write your solutions on.
- Please bring a pen to write your solutions (no pencils).
- Bring your ID and your student-ID.
- There will be lists on the doors which associate your name to a number. Forms for the solutions will be distributed to certain seats in the lecture halls. Each form has a number on it. Please take the seat with your number from the list.
- Please put your bags to the side or the front of the room. Make sure all your electronic devices are switched off.
- You can fill in your personal information (name, matriculation number, ...) on the form before the start of the exam. Please write your Name on every sheet of the form.
- There will be separate problem sheets that will be distributed when the exam starts.
- There will be space in the form for personal notes, that are not part of a solution, however these have to be handed in at the end of the exam, too.
- If you need more than one sheet for the solution of a problem please indicate the ordering.
- In all problems you can use the results of foregoing subproblems even if you did not prove them.
- The results will be visible on Basis as soon as possible.

First exam

- The exam takes place between 1:00 pm and 3:00 pm on the 15th of February.
- Bachelor students write the exam in kleiner Hörsaal.
- Master students write the exam in großer Hörsaal.
- Please be in front of your examination room at 12:45.
- You will have the possibility to have a look at your corrected exam. Date and place will be announced in due time.